Don't Let It Slide
by DJ Michael & the Thunderwaves

Sun comes up, a brand-new start,
Run so fast, wild at heart.
Laugh and jump, days fly by,
Close your eyes, blink, say bye.

Hey, hey, no time to waste,
Go, go, pick up the pace.
Whoa, whoa, don't let it slip,
Live it now, don't let it slide.

School bell rings, off we go,
Eyes meet quick, hearts say "whoa."
One first kiss, one big dream,
Next thing, life's in full steam.

Up at dawn, bills to pay,
Work all week, kids at play.
Love stays strong, years roll on,
Turn around—half is gone.

Hey, hey—no time to waste,
Go, go, pick up the pace.
Whoa, whoa, don't let it slip,
Live it now, don't let it slide.

Tick, tock, nights grow long,
Some move on, we stay strong.
Smile through tears, love won't fade,
Every night turns to day.

Slow it down, time runs fast,
Sit back, laugh, make it last.
One more step, one more light,
Sun may set, but love shines bright.

Hey, hey, no time to waste,
Go, go—pick up the pace.
Whoa, whoa, don't let it slip,
Live it now, don't let it slide.
